All systems are GO for the 14th Annual Ice Carnival to be held in the Drayton Valley Centennial Civic Centre on Saturday, March 22nd.

Over two hundred skaters will take part in the carnival which is based on a "Holiday Capers" theme. The audience will be transported via ice fantasy from New Year's Day through all the holiday seasons of the year and back to the New Year's Eve Ball.

First show will be a Saturday matinee starting at 2:00 p.m. It will be followed by an evening performance at 7:30. Crowning of the Carnival Queen will take place during the evening performance intermission.

Three girls are taking part in the Queen Contest with their supporters pushing ticket sales in recent days. Vote tickets will be available for the balance of the week.

The three queen contestants are: Joyce Rendflesh, sponsored by the High School; Brenda Ashmead, sponsored by the producing companies; and Madeleine Fontaine, sponsored by the service and supply companies.

County Ratepayers' Meeting Saturday

County of Parkland residents are reminded of the annual meeting of electors to be held in the Stony Plain Community Hall on Saturday, March 22nd, commencing at 10:30 a.m.

Following election of a chairman the first business on the agenda will be a discussion of school affairs. Electors of towns, villages, and rural school districts included in the county for school purposes are entitled to attend and participate in discussions during this portion of the meeting.

County business will follow the school portion of the meeting.

Chamber Delegates to Attend Area Meeting

At the regular monthly meeting of the Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce held at noon last Thursday in the Cardium Room plans were made to have representation at the annual meeting of the Edmonton Area Industrial Development Association.

Howard Pickup and Roy Burrows were named as delegates to the meeting in Leduc on Friday, March 21st.

A tour of the International Airport will be held in the morning followed by a luncheon and the business session. Guest speaker will be Morley Merner, Industrial Development Co-ordinator for the City of Wetaskiwin.

A letter from Town Council regarding a tourist bureau and information centre for the town was discussed. Members appeared not particularly enthused with the proposal and several expressed the possibility of co-operation by merchants providing tourist information rather than go to the expense of erecting a building for this purpose.

It was suggested that signs around town could direct visitors to a source of tourist information.

The annual 4-H show and sale of calves held in Drayton Valley each summer was discussed with members agreeing that Chamber sponsorship should continue as in the past. It was also decided that the new Moon Lake Beef Club would be invited to take part in the achievement day with the Tomahawk, Lobstick and Drayton Valley clubs that have competed here in recent years.

The 4-H achievement day will be held early in July.

Membership was discussed and a move will be made to collect dues and encourage greater membership.

A committee was also formed to study the housing situation.

Executive of the Chamber will meet again at noon on Thursday, March 20th in the Cardium Room.

A series of brief meditations for the readers of The Western Review prepared by the clergy of the Drayton Valley Ministerial Association.

The Broad Way and the Narrow

BY REV. ZEKE MARTIN

In what we have been saying in the last two instalments we have been insisting that our Christianity today has lost the compelling note. Why is this? Is it not because it has lost the compelling feature in the person and teaching of Jesus? Great numbers of people think of the Master as a meek and gentle soul who went about everywhere breathing mild benedictions, yet that comes near to being a caricature of all the facts of the case. There were two sides to the Ministry of Jesus. On one hand, He went about doing good - indeed He did - healing the sick, giving sight to the blind, relieving those who were in mental distress by casting out devils. On the other hand He went about giving the most violent offence to all sorts of people: his relatives, the disciples, the scribes, the pharisees, and the people with vested interests like the money-changers in the temple. He was so outspoken and inflammatory in his language, so uncompromising and unconventional in his behaviour that He was excommunicated, stoned, hunted from place to place in Palestine, and finally nailed to a cross as public enemy number one. That my friends is the Christ we profess to follow.

Jesus Christ said once that He came to send fire on the earth, and on another occasion that He brought not peace but a sword. No one can read the gospels with an unprejudiced mind and not perceive how sensitive He was to the fact that men were likely to be offended by Him and His message.

"Blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me" was the word He sent to John the Baptist as he lay in prison, baffled and bewildered by the line Jesus was taking; while to his disciples He said, as He faced His greatest ordeal: "see you shall be offended because of me this night. Read the gospels, and if you have not noticed the fact before, it will surprise you to discover how often and how deeply Jesus gave offence."

Now someone is going to say: What was there about Jesus to give offence? Surely, of all characters, is not His the most attractive and gracious? Indeed that is true, but dare we overlook the sterner elements in His character and message. How severe He was for example, in the matter of enlisting disciples! He never made it easy for a man to be His follower. "Strait is the gate and Narrow is the way" - that's what he said. "Lord" cried one man "I will follow Thee where ever you go" That was an enthusiastic offer, and another type of leader would have closed with it there and then; but not Jesus. He knew that enthusiasm is sometimes fitful and shallow as all clergymen with an observing faculty know only too well. Yes, Jesus knew that enthusiasm is sometimes fitful and shallow which accounts for His sobering reply - "Foxes have holes, the birds of the air have nests, but the son of man has no place to lay his head". "Lord" cried another man to whom had been addressed the call of discipleship "I will follow Thee but let me first go and bury my father", and swift as a sword thrust came the response; "let the dead bury their dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God". "Lord" cried still another candidate for discipleship, "I will follow you but let me first go bid them farewell who are at home in my house", and to him Jesus addressed one of the sternest words the world has ever heard; "No man having put his hands to the plough and looking back is fit for the kingdom of God"

A meeting was held recently between Hon. Mr. Jespersen stated that the

Another New York, We Don't Need

There's much to be said for rural life far from the city's concrete canyons. You can still look up into a clear blue sky or enjoy the song of a bird -- and there are many places on the North American Continent where these simple pleasures are denied.

Although Western Canadian cities are still a long way from the overcrowding, smog and traffic problems of major U.S. cities -- they are getting there. If we continue along the course of pouring industry, commerce, government, educational facilities and everything else into Calgary and Edmonton we can expect them to eventually become maddening ant hills of humanity with the accompanying decay and degeneration.

Consider the example of New York. Along with all its problems of traffic, crime, smog, sanitation and business congestion is an ever-growing horde of people hunting for somewhere to live.

One real estate broker reports 100,000 people registered on his list for apartments. He manages to place twelve or thirteen a day! If you don't have $250 a month for a one-room unfurnished apartment, you might as well stop looking. If you have the price you can join the others in scanning the daily obituary columns and then make a dash for a dead man's suite -- but you'll probably find it already leased by the undertaker.

We still have the opportunity in Alberta of avoiding the mess people have made of some of the older cities. How much better it would be to have the province liberally sprinkled with smaller cities offering every amenity in the way of recreation, culture, education, business and housing under circumstances appropriate to human dignity.

We were glad to note a TV observation by Peter Lougheed, leader of the Opposition in the Alberta Legislative Assembly, supporting the theory of more smaller cities throughout the province. Should his party form a government in the future we hope Mr. Lougheed can accomplish his objective. As a member of the Opposition we hope he will keep the government constantly aware of the growing problem.

Beautiful Spring is Danger Time

It is ironic and tragic, to say the least, that many individuals who, after enjoying a full winter season of ice sport, lose their lives due to conditions imposed by the breaking-up of the ice in early spring.

As winter nears its end the first hints of spring bring the dangers of old and unstable ice. The structure of the ice changes as the warmer weather approaches and, unfortunately, the changes take place underneath the ice where it cannot be seen. Ice may look perfectly solid yet it may be so honeycombed that the slightest weight upon it will cause it to crumble.

You can't be too careful at this time of year and in the few weeks ahead until complete break-up.

Warn your children about the approaching break-up and the hazards of swollen streams, water-filled ditches and excavations that accompany the spring thaw. Supervision of small children should be rigid in areas where these hazards are within their reach.

Legislature Report

BY RALPH JESPERSEN, M.L.A.

The debate on the Budget continued during the past week. Mr. Lougheed as Leader of the Opposition led off on the debate. It was interesting to hear Mr. Lougheed make the remark regarding Honourable A.O. Aalborg, the Provincial Treasurer - I quote: "I am sure there is no doubt also that in any sort of competition with Provincial Treasurers' from one end of this country to another including Ministers of Finance, that nobody could express themselves with such enthusiasm, and as well, as the Provincial Treasurer". I certainly have to agree with the above statement as to the ability of our Provincial Treasurer.

The leader of the Opposition of course was critical of the Budget and pointed to some areas where he felt changes could be brought about. One of the very remarkable areas which Mr. Lougheed touched upon was our Capital Expenditures. It was suggested that the Province should not be asked to cough up some extra dollars to pay today for the full cost of capital projects which may be used by our grandchildren. Then the Leader of the Opposition further suggested that we borrow for hospitals, agricultural schools, court house, and not carry on with the "pay-as-you-go" policy.

The Budget in Alberta was compared with the Budgets of British Columbia and Saskatchewan by Mr. Lougheed. It, of course, was very noticeable that comparison was only made in an endeavour to prove certain points. British Columbia apparently has a balanced budget, yet no mention was made of their sales tax, which gives that Province additional revenue of approximately $160,000,000.00, which the people of the Province have to pay. The question is - should we go for a sales tax to get these extra revenues. At this point our Government's answer is "we will not introduce a sales tax."

Many other subjects were introduced this week by Members from both sides of the House. The Government was criticized by Dr. Homer, M.L.A. for Lac Ste. Anne, regarding the Natural Resources Railway. In this Report I will only state at this time that after Honourable Fimrite spoke on the Budget Debate, and after other information from the Canadian National Railways and others was made available, the impression created after the initial attack by the Member from Lac Ste. Anne was completely changed.

Another matter discussed this week, and which will be further debated during this Session, was the construction of the Big Horn Dam. I certainly hope that in a later report I will be able to enlarge and give more information regarding this particular matter. May I say, however, that to intimate that there was incompetence on the part of the Government and a waste of money is a very premature decision.

Another document Tabled this week was the Report by a Special Legislative Committee, appointed during the 1968 Session. This Committee reported on the following: Automobile Insurance; Safe Highway Design Policy; Compulsory Vehicle Inspection Program; Driver Education - particularly in our High Schools; Penalties provided in Federal and Provincial law as to the use of alcohol and drugs while driving; and the whole concept of Driver Licensing and Driver Control. This whole report will be debated later, and certainly the decisions arrived at will be of concern to all our citizens.

Letters to the Editor

Editor,
The Western Review.

Dear Sir:

May I take this opportunity to remind the people of Drayton Valley of the "Hunger Lunch" being served tomorrow (Thursday, March 20th) at the Curling Arena. The purpose of the lunch which consists of soup, crackers and coffee is to bring to our attention in a physical way - that there are many hungry people in our world. The proceeds will go to the Canadian Organization for Development and Peace, Montreal, where the greater part of the dollar (92%) does arrive at its destination. The 8% is used for printing and secretarial work.

The cost of the meal is $1.00. Most people blow 10 times more than that on any given day of the year.

If you are concerned about the poor in the world why not make it evident in this simple way. The meal will be served once more on Thursday, March 27th in the same location. The meal is for adults and high school students. May we see you there!

Thank you,

Entwistle Community Church Setting for Recent Ceremony

A lovely wedding was solemnized Saturday, February 8th at 2:00 p.m. in the Entwistle Community Church, Entwistle, Alberta when Miss Donna Rose Tamke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tamke of Entwistle, Alberta exchanged vows with William Franklin Babcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Babcock of Hollysprings. Rev. R. Koehn officiated. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Wilma Tufty and Mrs. E. Smith, soloist, sang, "I'll Walk Beside You".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white satin gown which featured lace inserts, a lace yoke and long sleeves. Her veil was held in place by red roses studded with pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses with streamers. Her only jewelry was a 2-strand crystal necklace, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Shirley Moroz; Audrey Babcock, sister of the groom; and Darleen Preystupa, cousin of the bride. They wore identical semi-formal gown of aqua with an overlay of chiffon, and tiaras of net and white and pink camations. They carried white and pink camations on streamers.

The fifth regular meeting of the Tomahawk 4-H Beef Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enjeneski on March 11th.

We discussed the problems we were having with our calves and planned our calf tour and going to Edmonton for the bowling and curling competition. The members trying for the public speaking are still trying their hardest to be picked to represent their club.

A delicious lunch was served later by Mrs. Enjeneski and co-hostess Mrs. Dunbar. Our next meeting will be on April 8th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goertz.

How Does Your Garden Grow?

By Green Thumbs

Once again as the snow melts away and the seed catalogues arrive in the mail, gardeners seem to get "itchy" fingers, and long to get something started, even if it's just "armchair gardening". This phase of the gardening year is very important, as it is now that you should plan what you're going to plant, and in what location of your garden or yard you want to plant it.

Many gardeners just leave this part to the last moment, and then find that they haven't enough space for the amount of seeds and plants they have ordered, or bought, and usually wind up overcrowding everything, just to "get it in the ground". Not only does this prove costly moneywise, but it is not fair to the plants, as they must have ample room for growth. It is also tedious trying to hoe a crowded garden.

Very often varieties of seeds or plants are purchased without the person having the slightest idea of what kind of soil, location or cultivation it needs. So three things to remember before you start to buy your seeds etc., for the coming season is that: - You know your kind of soil, you have decided what areas of your garden you are going to use for flower borders, or vegetables, Make a list of the vegetables your family likes best, (as there is no point in planting spinach if you know no one likes it) and also a list of flowers that you like, or that you plan to enter in the local flower show.

Once you have decided these three things, choose your seeds and plants accordingly.

For those who are just landscaping new homes, it is important that you do not plant trees that will eventually be quite large where your vegetable garden will become shaded, as tomatoes, strawberries, raspberries will require all the sun they can get in our particular weather region. It is a good idea to draw a plan to scale of your property and design your yard to suit your needs, not forgetting which will be shade areas.

Many Provincial Nurseries will draw a plan for you with expert advice as to foundation plantings of trees, shrubs and hedges, but there is no reason why a person cannot do their own if they do a little research first. So now that you are not able to be outside yet, just get a note book and make your list, or plan if you have a major landscaping job coming up.

If you are planning to start seeds indoors, you will have to start some varieties very soon, depending on the germination period of the variety. It is not advisable for the average home owner to "start" difficult varieties indoors, unless they have adequate light or lighting, as usually the plants will become too lanky and die easily when transplanted outdoors.

It is still not too late to start geranium cuttings indoors, as by now most plants that have been wintered indoors, will be looking quite sad if they haven't been able to get adequate light. It is best to make a mixture of sand, soil and leaf mould or vermiculite in equal parts, as it is easier for them to "root", also try to cut the stems at an angle just below a leaf, or where a leaf has been on a fairly sturdy part of the stem.

Next week I'll try to compile a list for you of the varieties that have been successful in the Drayton Valley area, and also whether they are suited to shade, clay soil, etc.,

The House That Gas Built

Modern homes are actually houses that gas built. Window glass, asbestos, cement blocks, bricks, bathroom fixtures, lumber and even the kitchen sink are processed by the magic blue flame.

And industry is constantly finding new jobs for gas. In fact, natural gas has more than 26,000 adaptations of over 2,500 individual uses in the production and fabrication of almost every item required in the daily life of the nation.

Natural gas, however, is more than an industrial tool.

Today, for instance, when a girl dons a sweater to bring her warmth, it is as likely to have come from the chemists' vats as from the sheep man has herded for centuries. The sheer hose she wears to feel and look her best are more likely to evolve from a chemical factory than from nature's miraculous but not-so-efficient silkworm. The purse she carries is probably made of plastic. And somewhere along the line — either in production or as a raw material and quite likely both — natural gas plays a vital role in making these and hundreds of other items. For gas is a basic ingredient in nearly the entire roster of things we refer to as synthetics.

And what of the future? Natural gas is being used experimentally in thermionic and thermoelectric fuel cell devices to silently produce electricity — without a single moving part.

Ultimately, as additional technical advances reduce costs and increase productivity, these devices will open a whole new vista of jobs for natural gas.

MRS. A. HOMME
Correspondent

This district was saddened by the death of Mr. Tom Ewashko of the Keepphills area. We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Ewashko and the family in their bereavement.

Melvin and Rene Homme and daughter Debby of Red Deer visited Melvin's parents on the weekend. They took the folks to visit their son Lewis, Doris and family at Stony Plain, and on to Edmonton where they enjoyed a lovely dinner at Zoltan and Norma Petriko's.

Dick and Lily Wheadon of Whitecourt also visited Lily's sister Norma. The occasion was Zoltan's birthday.

Eldon Greanya attended the Board of Evangelism at Red Deer on the weekend.

Cecil and June Homme and Stacey visited Cecil's sister Bernice and family of St. Francis on Monday.

Buford Walker has been ill with the flu. His sister Rita and family of Edmonton visited in the neighborhood on the weekend.

Mrs. Dorothy MacDougall and Charley Bennett visited at the Stanley MacDougall home on Sunday.

The Women's Missionary group met at June Homme's this week.

Mrs. Hazel Wickware is now driving the school bus that comes to the Tattersall approach to pick up Theresa Tattersall, a student going to Stony Plain School.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordie Marshall of Jarvie are proud parents of a 9 lb. son born March 11th at Westlock hospital. A little grandson for Rev. J.D. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Criss are proud grandparents to a new baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Crawford of Drayton Valley.

DID YOU KNOW?

Today the manufacture of pulp and paper stands first among all industries in Canada in value of production, in exports, in total wages paid, and in capital invested. It is the largest consumer of electric energy, and one of the largest industrial buyers of goods and service, including transportation. The annual transportation bill of the industry is $250 million.

TAX TIPS

This income tax column has been prepared by the Edmonton District Office, Department of National Revenue, Taxation. The questions used are common ones, and the answers usually straightforward. However, unusual circumstances sometimes alter the answer. If your question isn't answered here, or in the Income Tax Guide, phone 424-0251 in Edmonton or write National Revenue, Taxation, Edmonton for free advice.

1. Q. I paid $1,500 in alimony to my former wife last year. Can I claim all of this or just the married exemption of $1,000?

A. Provided it qualified under the Income Tax Act, you may deduct the whole $1,500. There is no dollar limit on the amount of alimony that may qualify for deduction from income.

2. Q. Is the reserve portion of a patronage dividend taxable?

A. Yes, both the cash and reserve portion must be included in income except in cases of consumer goods.

3. Q. My refund was delayed last year because I did not attach a proper receipt for tuition fees to my return. What kind of receipt is required and what should it say?

A. Most educational institutions in Canada issue a special receipt for income tax purposes and you should make sure that this is the one you attach to your return. This receipt will show the period covered by the tuition fees and will say what part of the fees qualifies for deduction. (Not all fees paid to educational institutions qualify). It does not matter when the fees were paid but you may not claim tuition fees covering a period longer than 12 months commencing in the taxation year. For example, if you have valid receipts for tuition fees covering the last half of 1967, the first and last halves of 1968 and the first half of 1969, you have a choice of claiming for 1968 either your tuition fees for the whole of 1968 or your fees for the last half of 1968 and the first half of 1969. You may not claim in 1968 tuition fees paid for 1967, even though you filed no return for 1967.

4. Q. Is it true that I may give to my son, who is farming with me, farm property to the value of $10,000 without attracting gift tax?

A. This is true in certain circumstances. There are many points to be considered in this regard and it may be wise to seek professional advice or submit the details to your Taxation Office.

5. Q. I am supporting a brother who is attending university. Can I claim him as a dependant?

A. If his income for 1968 was not more than $950 and no one else claims him as a dependant you may claim exemption for any amount you contributed to his support up to $550. If your father, or brothers and sisters are also contributing to his support and the total contribution is more than $550, you will have to agree among yourselves how the $550 exemption will be divided among you.

6. Q. Are commercial reserves and elevator deductions to be reported as income when paid out to a farmer on reaching age 70?

A. Normally these will have been reported in the year when credited to his account and would therefore not be included in his income when actually received.

At the Artex party to be held at the home of Mrs. M. Hagen. Mrs. Lawley of Gainford will give a lesson on shading, which will be very interesting as well as educational. This party is on March 20th at 2:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

The sympathy of the folks in the district go out to Mr. and Mrs. K. Finlayson in the loss of Mr. Finlayson's mother, Mrs. Gladys Mae Finlayson of Rochester, Alberta.

Miss Hilda Margerison had been staying with Miss Dorothy Wickman while Miss Susan Wickman is attending the funeral of their niece at the coast.

The W.I. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. Anderson on Wednesday, March 12th. It was a lovely day and the attendance was very good. Plans were made for an Easter Flower Sale, as this is their yearly project. Mrs. H. Miller, Mrs. F. Anderson and Mrs. E.H. Woollard will be looking after the orders and the delivering of the flowers. After all other business was transacted a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. F. Anderson and Mrs. R.M. Watt. The tea prize was won by Mrs. Watt.

The Artex party which was held at the home of Mrs. H. Parker on the evening of March 3rd was well attended. Mrs. G. Lawley of Gainford was the demonstrator. She was demonstrating the work she had done and then she gave each one a pot holder to try their luck on. We will be quite proud when we can do such lovely work as Mrs. Lawley had with her.

We are glad to report that Mr. K. Finlayson is improving in the Barrhead hospital. We hope you will soon be well enough to come home Ken.

Mr. and Mrs. Florewich of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Brynne Jones of Calgary and Mrs. Kent were guests at Mr. and Mrs. W. Mastaller recently.

Couple Enjoy Visit to Ireland

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McGregor returned March 12th from a 21-day holiday trip to Ireland where Bob was born.

The visited Bob's old home in Dromore, County Down. The house he remembers as a boy is now several hundred years old and still standing.

"It should be still standing," Bob says, "the walls are three feet thick."

Mr. McGregor came to Canada when he was eight but returned to visit Ireland several times while overseas during the war. This was his first trip back since the war, and also Mrs. McGregor's first visit to the Emerald Isle.

The trip gave the McGregors an opportunity to meet a large number of Bob's relatives who still live in the area. They also spent a few days visiting in England before flying home.

EVANSBURG NEWS

MRS. M. BRUNER Correspondent

It seems that spring weather is still with us, but just today I heard a prediction that we will be in for some more cold weather before we have our spring. Let us hope that the next cold spell does not last too long.

The UCW held their regular meeting recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kossowan. There were eleven members present to discuss various matters. Plans were made to hold a tea and bake sale as well as a bazaar on the 19th of April. This event will take place in the United Church basement. The meeting was closed with the benediction. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Tuttle. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Otto.

The District Agricultural Society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kalinowski in Wildwood. Various matters were discussed but most were tabled. A date for a bingo was set for April 18th, to be held in the Wildwood Hall. Mr. Smith from The Western Review was on hand to photograph the new executive for the year. Since the number of executives has almost doubled great things should be forthcoming from this organization this year.

The Gymkhana Club, instead of holding its regular meeting, showed films on farming and horse clubs. This was held in the Legion Hall and a fair crowd attended.

The FUA held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pugh in Evansburg. A good attendance was recorded and much discussion took place on present farm politics. The ladies present, members of the FUA, were asked to serve lunch at the farm auction to be held at the B. Tucker farm on April 26th. The same group, FUA, held the first of a successful evening of whist, playing in the Hollysprings Community Centre. Winners were: Women's high, Mrs. Doris Feldberg; low, Mrs. Mary Bura; Men's high, Mr. P. Kreminiuk; low, Mr. M. Mazeppa. The next whist night to be held at this centre will be on March 22nd and the proceeds will go toward the Community League.

The boys in the Cub Pack were recipients of several skaters' badges and stars recently. They are still studying for more stars and badges before the nice weather arrives and they can go outdoors to practise for the Cubaree.

Communications these days just aren't what they ought to be. I just found out last night that Mrs. Evelyn Stewart, from just down below the hill from me has been in the Drayton Valley hospital for quite some time. We certainly wish you a speedy recovery, Mrs. Stewart, and hope that you will be back home soon.

If anyone has any news that they wish to have published, please just phone me, as otherwise I have no way of knowing what people are doing.

This week, congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tuttle on their recent marriage.

TAKE A NEW LOOK AT LAUNDRY: Remember when laundry was as simple as using hot water and adding soap? Occasionally you might have to bleach and you would have to treat woollens individually but aside from that it was pretty straight forward. Last week one of my home management groups was inclined to feel that with all the new easy-care and work saving fabrics and finishes, that job has become more complicated. And it's true you do have to know something about all the new cleaning compounds and you have to know what fiber and finish you have in order to know how to treat it.

This is where labelling becomes so important. Look for fiber content and care instructions on the sewn-in label or on the hang tag.

Many items of course, don't have care labels and it really makes it difficult to know whether to dryclean. If you do wash it, what temperature should you use, can it be bleached, and how should it be dried?

Legislation has been introduced to make it mandatory to label garments and yard goods with care instructions. I'd like to see fiber content on the label, as well. This gives me some idea of what to expect from the fabric - in terms of drape, wear, crease resistance and so on.

If you have any thoughts about labelling, write to the Consumer, Box 99, Ottawa.

Next week's column will deal more specifically with laundry products and how to use them.

Farm Business Courses Available

Special business courses are now available in rural areas for farmers. Last fall two courses, Farm Management Accounting and Farm Cost Accounting, were offered to the farm businessman by the Department of Education, Division of Vocational Education, working jointly with a local sponsoring group. Few formal educational programs covered this area of management. To eliminate the existing gap, plans for evening classes were formulated to provide these two basic courses immediately.

The program is carried out in co-operation with the Alberta Government Department of Agriculture. All courses will be restricted to the accounting aspects of farm life, and are not intended to deal with instructions on farming methods and productivity. Personnel from the Department of Agriculture are authorized to act as instructors.

Farm Management Accounting studies farm records to see where opportunities lie and profits can be made; while Farm Cost Accounting teaches methods for calculating the costs of producing farm products. Plans are in progress to develop the two courses into a fourth program catering to farm management needs. New courses would cover farm laws, estate planning, and farm marketing.

More Certified Bulk Seed

More bulk certified cereal seed should be available this spring in Alberta, predicts Crops Specialist Sherman Yelland.

Mr. Yelland, Supervisor of Cereal and Oil Seeds for the Plant Industry Division, indicates that more of the municipal seed cleaning plants have become authorized establishments co-operating with the seed made in the distribution of the improved seed.

He claimed that cleaning plants must meet high standards before they are approved as authorized establishments by the Federal government. This enables them to clean certified seed for members of the seed trade or seed dealers.

At the present time, plants at Three Hills, Paradise Valley, Stony Plain, Rosebud, Beiseker, Barrhead, Bashaw, Wainwright, Vermilion have been approved. It is thought that many of the other 65 plants will be seeking approval in the near future.

Mr. Yelland noted that Alberta has lagged behind the other prairie provinces in the merchandising of this improved seed. Last year the Alberta movement amounted to only about 60,000 bushels compared to 400,000 in Saskatchewan and 314,000 in Manitoba.

The Alberta Department of Agriculture is pleased, he said, that the seed cleaning plants are being given the opportunity of assisting the seed growers and the trade to make this superior seed available to the commercial farm operator.

A little boy who had spent a week at a dude ranch told his mother excitedly, "Mom, I even saw a man who makes horses."

"Are you sure?" asked his mother.

"Yes," he replied. "He had a horse nearly finished when I saw him, and he was just nailing on the feet."

HEALTH UNIT NOTES

Friday at the Edson Health Unit there will be a film shown at 2:00 p.m. called "Terrible Twos and Trusting Threes". Dr. Longley, our new dentist, will be guest speaker, speaking on the importance of baby teeth.

THE THREE YEAR OLD

Three years is such a pleasant age. Most of the balkiness of the "terrible two's" is now passed. The three-year-old is full of admiration and fond affection for his parents. Now, he imitates because he wants to grow to be like them.

He talks in short sentences quite freely and with great animation. He is very attentive to adults, listens to their words and watches their faces for clues of approval or disapproval.

The three-year-old will do some dressing as well as undressing of himself. Because little girls tend to develop more rapidly than boys, they will be doing a better job of dressing. Most sleep through the night without wetting the bed and, if given a hand with tricky buttons, can manage to go to the toilet by themselves during the daytime.

"Up The Years"

Department of National Health.

FIRST POSTAL SERVICE

The first service in the world came into being in the time of Sargon of Chaldaea, three thousand years before Christ. His couriers scurried hither and yon on foot, delivering important messages inscribed in clay.

Extended Rural Program Planned by Northwestern

Northwestern is gearing itself for another busy year of extending natural gas service to rural areas of north-central Alberta. The company has at present a priority list of 14 new areas which have been surveyed. These areas will be contacted by the company in order of priority, and residents will be asked to sign for natural gas service.

As each area in turn meets the required percentage of sign-ups, the company will proceed to install service lines. It will not be possible to install distribution systems in all areas this year as there are over 1,000 miles of piping involved. Northwestern officials state. They do however expect to cover all areas by the fall of 1970.

In addition to the new areas, Northwestern will re-canvass persons living in the Fairview Rural Gas Co-op area west of Lacombe. Sixty-seven miles of mains were installed in this district in 1968. Northwestern expects more farmers will be in a position to sign for service this year so that a pipeline system can be completed to cover the entire area.

More than 1,100 farms were served with natural gas by Northwestern last year. Over the next two construction seasons the gas company expects to extend to another 2,000 farms.

In addition to the rural gas program (made possible through the use of plastic pipe for distribution lines), Northwestern will canvass potential customers in a number of summer villages located on lakes in the central Alberta area. Where sufficient interest is shown, natural gas service will be installed in these lake-cottage communities.

Campground fees which were formerly $1.00 for unserviced sites, $1.50 for sites with individual electrical service, and $2.00 for sites with individual electrical, water and sewer services will each be increased by 50 cents.

Operating and maintenance costs have risen sharply and must be reflected in user fees. Also the fees in National Parks should be comparable with those for similar services provided outside the Parks.

Tenting areas for organized groups will be expanded. The charge for these facilities will be 25 cents per camper per day.

The Fire Commissioner's annual report records that welders' and plumbers torches cause 60 to 100 known fires per year with a result of destroying hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property. Last year in Alberta, 62 fires from welders' and plumbers' torches caused $208,562 worth of property loss. This is just one of a number of fire hazards directly associated with the construction industry. However, we have reason to believe that it is of concern all across Canada because cutting torch fires were commented upon recently in a National Safety Council Bulletin which rated this matter as a serious problem in industry in that most industries are exposed to the hazard both from their own employees and outside contractor employees.

On the construction job it is quite evident that more supervision is needed and that greater responsibility must be assumed by users of torches to take care to prevent fires.

CALVES

Boars 9.50 per cwt, less discount on thin boars. 530 feeder hogs sold Tuesday and Thursday ranging from 31 per cwt, for 80 lb. feeders down to 24 per cwt, for heavier kinds. Weaners and extra light feeders from 15 to 25 dollars each.

STARTING BABY ON FRUITS

Apple sauce is a good fruit for your baby to start with, says the federal health department publication, The Canadian Mother and Child. If you are making it or any other stewed fruit, do not use much sugar.

The only raw fruit which is advised for small babies is ripe banana, mashed soft with a fork.

A good serving of fruit consists of about three tablespoons. This amount should be worked up to gradually.
